

Transcription→

I have always been a strong supporter of Wofford College. I am sorry that its leadership has decided to integrate this great institution. I am in touch with many friends of Wofford and they feel the way that I do, that is that it is time to change presidents before more harm comes to our school.

A friend of Wofford